

A different discipline: revisiting Canon Sheehan of Doneraile (1852-1913) – author, activist, priest

Conference in University College Cork

Friday 26th and Saturday 27th April 2013

FRIDAY	AULA MAXIMA
7.30pm	Official conference opening 'IRISH AND ENGLISH CATHOLIC LITERATURE AND ITS CZECH RECEPTION' Professor Martin Putna, former Director of the Vaclav Havel Library, Prague
8.45pm	End of opening session
SATURDAY	WEST WING 6
10.00am	'SHEEHAN AND HEUSER: COLLABORATING FOR THE UPKEEP OF THE CHURCH' Fr Joseph Hubbert, Niagara University
10.50am	'THE CANON IN GERMANY' Professor Eda Sagarra, Trinity College Dublin
11.40am	Coffee break
12.00pm	'AN OBSTINATE QUILL: FR MATTHEW RUSSELL SJ AND THE IRISH MONTHLY' Declan O'Keefe, Clongowes Wood College
12.50pm	Lunch break
2.10pm	TITLE Dr Ruth Fleischmann, University of Bielefeld (retired)
3.00pm	'CANON SHEEHAN'S DYSTOPIA: "GODLESS SCIENCE" AND DARWINISM' Dr Don O'Leary, University College Cork
3.50pm	Coffee break
4.10pm	'CANON SHEEHAN: A LITERARY LIFE' Monsignor James O'Brien, Congregation for Divine Worship, Vatican city
5.00pm	End of conference

For further information and details on tickets please telephone Gabriel Doherty, 021-4902783, email g.doherty@ucc.ie

The School of History wishes to acknowledge the generous support of the parishes of Mallow and Doneraile for financial support in hosting this event.

Conference website:

Please address any correspondence to: 'Sheehan Conference', School of History, University College Cork.