

Declaration of invalidity of Liturgies

In the span of 26 years of his pontificate, John Paul II:

- 1) put the worship of God on an equal footing with the worship of demons by his gesture in Assisi;
- 2) consciously neglected to punish heresies casting doubt upon the Divine inspiration of the Bible and Divinity of Christ and thus approved them;
- 3) consciously neglected to punish the crimes of paedophilia and homosexuality among the clergy wherefore he bore the responsibility for them (e.g. USA, Ireland, Australia...).

On the grounds of these three crimes he anathematized, i.e. excommunicated, himself from the Church according to Gal 1:8-9.

The greatest tragedy in the history of the Church is that on 1 May 2011 Benedict XVI beatified this apostate Pope. The three above-mentioned crimes deny the essence of the Gospel of Christ. Benedict XVI elevated this anti-gospel to a new stream in the Church. It is a way to eternal perdition.

By the pseudo beatification Benedict XVI excommunicated himself from the Mystical Body of Christ – the Church. He caused the Holy Spirit to be driven out of the official Church structure and elevated the spirit of Assisi – the spirit of antichrist – to the altar of the Church. This is an abomination in the holy place (Mt 24:15).

What is the solution in this situation? Jesus points out in the power of his Divine and prophetic authority: “Unless you repent, you will all perish.” (Lk 13:3)

Therefore every Catholic Christian is obliged to dissociate himself from the spirit of Assisi – the spirit of antichrist and from the heresies that deny the essence of the Gospel. He is likewise obliged to warn his priest either in person or in writing to stop commemorating the apostate Pope in the Liturgy. Where there is unity with the spirit of antichrist, the Holy Spirit is not present, and therefore the sacraments so administered are invalid. In order that the Liturgy may be celebrated validly again, inward separation from the spirit of antichrist is needed as well as an outward change in the formula, for example: “...together with the first Pope Peter and with all the orthodox Catholic Popes and Bishops.”

In case the priest ignores the caution and persists in obstinacy, the Catholic believer is obliged to stop attending the Masses officiated by him. He is obliged to make this step if he really has at heart the salvation of his own soul. Attending an apostatical ceremony, he does not receive a blessing but falls under a curse.

By authority of the apostolic and prophetic office, in the name of the Triune God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the Byzantine Catholic Patriarchate obliges in conscience:

- 1) every Catholic priest and believer to dissociate himself from the spirit of Assisi – the spirit of antichrist.

2) every priest to cease to commemorate the names of the present ex-Pope and ex-Bishop in the Liturgy. Otherwise, his Liturgies are a deceit because it is not the Holy Spirit who works in them but the spirit of antichrist.

Every priest and believer shall render an account before the judgement seat of God for his response to this declaration uttered by the authority of the Triune God. If he obeys God's call for true repentance, he will be saved. If he rejects and persists in obstinacy until his death, he will be eternally condemned (see Lk 13:3).
